As every corner of our hut needs to be thoughtfully arranged, we have one small but important request:

To ensure that everyone finds their place and you can fully enjoy the evening, we kindly ask each group to choose one shared dish – true teamwork is required here!

In our old wooden hut, the selected dishes and beverages will be available for self-service. While you enjoy your meal and the unique hut atmosphere, our restaurant team will of course always be nearby to make sure you are well taken care of and wanting for nothing.
